FACULTY PROGRAMMES

NON-DESTRUCTIVE EVALUATION

Doctor of Engineering in Non-Destructive Evaluation

1. This programme is offered jointly by the University of Strathclyde, Imperial College, University of Bristol, University of Bath, University of Nottingham and University of Warwick. The awards are made in the name of one of these six Universities. The Regulations are drawn up consequent upon a Collaboration Agreement for joint delivery of the degree which has been approved by Senate.
2. The taught component of the programmes will be delivered at the partner university campuses and all modules are taught by staff from the six universities. Students shall be subject to the Programme Regulations that have been adopted by all six Universities and to any other General Regulations, etc., of the University at which they are registered.
3. For the current academic year, the administering university is Imperial College, London, and full details of Programme Regulations applicable are shown in that University's Calendar.
